COVID-19 Response Efforts

The Company has taken significant steps to protect the health and well-being of its employees and clients and to assist clients who have been impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic.

- In mid-March, all Financial Centers began operating on an amended hours schedule or by appointment and we began further utilizing our drive through services, with increased safety measures.
- In mid-March, we implemented a work-from-home policy for employees who are able to do so and began providing guidance on hygiene and social distancing.
- We are encouraging clients to utilize the Bank's electronic banking services, including online and mobile banking, telephone banking, as well as night drops and ATMs.
- We have been proactive in our outreach to our clients and have offered hardship assistance, including participation in Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act ("CARES Act") programs.
- We are assisting new and existing customers as an active participant in the Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP").
- We are also providing payment deferrals and forbearances to consumers and business customers that are experiencing hardship because of the crisis.

Impact of COVID-19

In March 2020, Congress passed the CARES Act, which is designed to provide relief to individuals and businesses following the unprecedented impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. The CARES Act includes approximately $2 trillion in assistance and a key component is the PPP, which provides 100% federally guaranteed Small Business Administration (“SBA”) loans for small businesses to cover up to eight weeks of payroll costs to retain their workforce and assist with mortgage interest, rent and utilities. Notably, these small business loans may be forgiven if borrowers maintain their payrolls and satisfy certain other conditions during the eight-week period as defined in the SBA guidance.

In response to the economic hardships associated with the COVID-19 pandemic, as of April 30, 2020, the Company has obtained approval from the SBA for 172 loans totaling $17.1 million for both existing and new customers, with an average loan size of approximately $99,000. The Company also assisted another 10 small businesses representing $3.2 million through referral to an intermediary consultant who sourced the loans to another SBA lending institution. These efforts assisted local small businesses to retain an estimated 1,769 employees. The Company is continually monitoring the PPP and making the necessary adjustments to its own operations.

In addition, Section 4013 of the CARES Act, “Temporary Relief from Troubled Debt Restructurings (“TDRs”),” allows banks to temporarily suspend certain requirements under GAAP related to TDRs for a limited period of time to account for the effects of COVID-19. A bank may elect to account for modifications on certain loans under Section 4013 of the CARES Act or, if a loan modification is not eligible under Section 4013, a bank may use the criteria in the COVID-19 guidance to determine when a loan modification is not a TDR.

The Bank began providing financial hardship relief in the form of payment deferrals and forbearances to customers and business customers across several lending products, as well as suspension of home foreclosures. Many of the Company’s customers have been required to close pursuant to governmental restrictions on nonessential businesses, and we expect they will suffer significant cash flow issues. As of April 30, 2020, the Company entered into 136 loan modification agreements with respect to approximately 29 percent of loans outstanding. We are dedicated to supporting our clients and communities throughout this period of uncertainty. The payment deferrals and forbearances are currently expected to cover periods of three months. These offers are not classified as TDRs and do not result in loans being placed on nonaccrual status. These modifications are on-going and we expect more deferrals to be granted in the third fiscal quarter 2020.

“I am very proud of the Malvern team’s performance in responding to the COVID-19 health crisis. Our initial response has been to take important steps to mitigate the potential spread of the virus, while continuing to serve our clients and keep them and our employees safe during these challenging times. We believe our responsiveness to new and existing customers and our strong capital position will enable us to weather this unprecedented storm. Despite these unusual times, I am pleased with our second fiscal quarter operating results, especially our continued improvement of the balance sheet and our emphasis on building client relationships, measured loan growth and strong capital levels,” commented Anthony C. Weagley, President and Chief Executive Officer.

Joseph D. Gangemi, Chief Financial Officer of the Company, added: “The Bank has taken steps to reduce the cost of funds through reductions in deposit rates, and in higher cost borrowings, as well as with derivative transactions. We believe these strategies taken throughout the quarter will serve to improve the net interest margin in the coming quarters.”

Net Interest Income

Net interest income was $6.8 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2020, a decrease of $456,000, or 6.3 percent, from $7.2 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2019. The decline was primarily driven by the sharp decline in rates with the Federal Reserve lowering the federal funds rate by 150 basis points. The change for the quarter ended March 31, 2020 reflects an increase in total interest-bearing liabilities of $110.3 million, partially offset by an increase of $53.9 million in the average balance of loans. The increase in average loans primarily reflects a net increase in residential and construction and development loans. The net interest spread on an annualized basis was 2.01 percent and 2.41 percent for the quarters ended March 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively.

For the quarter ended March 31, 2020, the Company's net interest margin on a tax-equivalent basis, a non-GAAP measure, decreased by forty-two basis points to 2.25 percent as compared to 2.67 percent for the quarter ended March 31, 2019, driven by a 150 basis point decline in the federal funds rate.

Net interest income was $13.7 million for the six months ended March 31, 2020, a decrease of $515,000, or 3.6 percent, from $14.2 million for the six months ended March 31, 2019. The change for the six months ended March 31, 2020 primarily was the result of rate related factors and an increase in total interest-bearing liabilities of $115.8 million, partially offset by an increase of $74.4 million in the average balance of loans. The net interest spread on an annualized basis was 2.04 percent and 2.40 percent for the six months ended March 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively.

For the six months ended March 31, 2020, the Company's net interest margin on a tax-equivalent basis, a non-GAAP measure, decreased by thirty-seven basis points to 2.29 percent as compared to 2.66 percent for the same six-month period in fiscal 2019, driven by a 150 basis point decline in the federal funds rate.

The average cost of deposits was 1.62 percent for the three months ended March 31, 2020 compared to 1.67 percent for the same three-month period in fiscal 2019 and, on a linked sequential quarter basis, decreased from 1.73 percent compared to the first quarter of fiscal 2020.

Total Interest Income

For the quarters ended March 31, 2020 and March 31, 2019, total interest income was $11.6 million. Average interest earning assets increased $120.7 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2020 when compared to the quarter ended March 31, 2019, while the average yield on interest earning assets declined 0.43 percent when comparing the same periods. The average yield was primarily affected by the Federal Reserve reducing the federal funds rate by 150 basis points.

For the six months ended March 31, 2020, total interest income was $23.4 million, an increase of $866,000, or 3.8 percent, from $22.5 million for the six months ended March 31, 2019. Total interest income rose for the six months ended March 31, 2020, compared to the comparable period in fiscal 2019, primarily due to a $74.4 million increase in average loan balances. Compared to the six months ended March 31, 2019, average interest earning assets increased $125.6 million.

Interest Expense

For the quarter ended March 31, 2020, interest expense increased by $439,000, or 10.1 percent, to $4.8 million, compared to the quarter ended March 31, 2019, primarily due to an increase in average volume of deposits and average volume of interest-bearing liabilities. The increase in interest expense on deposits primarily reflects an increase of $55.5 million, $12.0 million, and $11.7 million in other interest-bearing, certificate, and money market deposits, respectively. The annualized average rate of total interest-bearing liabilities decreased three basis points to 1.82 percent for the quarter ended March 31, 2020, from 1.85 percent for the quarter ended March 31, 2019 and, on a linked sequential quarter basis, decreased from 1.92 percent compared to the first quarter of fiscal 2020. For the quarter ended March 31, 2020, the average balance of total interest-bearing liabilities increased by $110.3 million, reflecting an increase in the average balance of total interest-bearing deposit accounts of $78.2 million and an increase in the average balance of borrowings of $32.1 million, compared to the quarter ended March 31, 2019.

Total interest expense increased by $1.4 million, or 16.6 percent, to $9.7 million for the six months ended March 31, 2020, compared to the comparable period in fiscal 2019. The average rate of total interest-bearing liabilities increased to 1.87 percent for the six months ended March 31, 2020, from 1.81 percent for the six months ended March 31, 2019. At the same time, the average balance of total interest-bearing liabilities increased by $115.8 million. This increase primarily reflects an increase in the average balance of interest-bearing deposits of $92.1 million and an increase in the average balance of borrowings of $23.7 million. The increase in the average balance of deposits consisted of a $71.0 million increase in the average balance of other interest-bearing deposit accounts, an $11.8 million increase in the average balance of money market accounts, and an $11.2 million increase in the average balance of certificates of deposit accounts, offset by a $2.0 million decrease in the average balance of savings deposits.

Other Income

Other income increased $523,000, or 118.6 percent, during the second fiscal quarter of 2020 compared with the same period in 2019. The increase in other income was primarily due to a $366,000 increase in service charges and other fees and a $180,000 gain on sale of investments. The increase in service charges and other fees during the quarter ended March 31, 2020 is primarily due to the recognition of approximately $371,000 of net swap fees through the Bank's commercial loan hedging program realized during the quarter ending March 31, 2020 in concert with lending activity.

For the six months ended March 31, 2020, total other income decreased $180,000 compared to the same period in 2019. This decrease was primarily a result of a $315,000 decrease in service charges and other fees, a $34,000 decrease in net gains on sale of loans, and a $22,000 decrease in rental income, offset by a $180,000 gain on sale of investments and an $11,000 increase in earnings on bank-owned life insurance. The decrease in service charges and other fees during the six months ended March 31, 2020 is primarily due to the recognition of approximately $337,000 less of net swap fees through the Bank's commercial loan hedging program. The primary benefit of the loan hedging program is to eliminate the interest rate risk on long term fixed rate loans while allowing the Bank to compete more effectively in our markets.

Other Expense

Other expense for the quarter ended March 31, 2020 increased $195,000, or 4.4 percent, when compared to the quarter ended March 31, 2019. The increase was primarily due to a $78,000 increase in the Pennsylvania shares tax, an increase of $74,000 in other operating expense, an increase of $58,000 in salaries and employee benefits, and an increase of $47,000 in professional fees. These were partially offset by a decrease of $70,000 in the federal deposit insurance premium and a decrease of $29,000 in other real estate owned expense. The increase in the Pennsylvania shares tax is due to the tax being based on equity as of January 1st, the estimate for 2020 exceeded 2019. The increase in salaries and employee benefits reflect normal increases to salary and benefits. The increase in professional fees was due to higher legal expense and professional services of approximately $35,000 and $75,000, respectively, partially offset by lower audit and accounting expense of approximately $64,000. The reduction in the federal deposit insurance premium resulted from the Deposit Insurance Fund reserve ratio exceeding the official required reserve ratio, which in turn generates credits to qualified participating banks. The Company currently does not have any further credit balance that can be used to offset premiums in future quarters.

For the six months ended March 31, 2020, total other expense increased $523,000, or 6.1 percent, compared to the same period in 2019. The increase primarily reflects a $248,000 increase in the Pennsylvania shares tax, a $175,000 increase in salaries and employee benefits, and a $136,000 increase in other operating expenses. These increases were partially offset by a $142,000 decrease in the federal deposit insurance premium. The increase in the Pennsylvania shares tax was due to the Bank not being subject to this tax until the second quarter of 2019 due to a charter change. The increase in salaries and employee benefits during the six-month period ended March 31, 2020 reflects normal increases to salary and benefits to support overall franchise growth consistent with our business plan. The reduction in the federal deposit insurance premium resulted from the Deposit Insurance Fund reserve ratio exceeding the official required reserve ratio, which in turn generates credits to qualified participating banks. The Company currently does not have any further credit balance that can be used to offset premiums in future quarters.

The following table presents the components of Other Expense for the periods indicated.

Net interest margin, which is net interest income as a percentage of average interest-earning assets, is presented on a fully tax equivalent ("TE") basis as we believe this non-GAAP measure is the preferred industry measurement for this item. The Company revised its estimated annual effective tax rate to reflect a change in the federal statutory rate from 35 percent to 21 percent, resulting from the enactment of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017. The TE basis adjusts GAAP interest income and yields for the tax benefit of income on certain tax-exempt investments using the blended statutory rate of 21 percent for the current period. Below is a reconciliation of GAAP net interest income to the TE basis and the related GAAP basis and TE net interest margins for the periods presented.

Forward-Looking Statements

The statements contained herein that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements based on management's current expectations and beliefs concerning future developments and their potential effects on the Company, including, without limitation, plans, strategies and goals, and statements about the Company's expectations regarding revenue and asset growth, financial performance and profitability, loan and deposit growth, yields and returns, loan diversification and credit management, and shareholder value creation.

Such statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, many of which are difficult to predict and are generally beyond the control of the Company. There can be no assurance that future developments affecting the Company will be the same as those anticipated by management. The Company cautions readers that a number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied or projected by, such forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the following: the effects of, and changes in, trade, monetary and fiscal policies and laws, including recent changes in interest rate policies of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System; inflation, interest rate, market and monetary fluctuations; the impact of competition and the acceptance of the Company's products and services by new and existing customers; the impact of changes in financial services policies, laws and regulations; technological changes; any oversupply of inventory and deterioration in values of real estate in the markets in which the Company operates, both residential and commercial; the effect of changes in accounting policies and practices, as may be adopted from time-to-time by bank regulatory agencies, the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, the Financial Accounting Standards Board or other accounting standards setters; possible other-than-temporary impairment of securities held by us; the effects of the Company's lack of a widely-diversified loan portfolio, including the risks of geographic and industry concentrations; ability to attract deposits and other sources of liquidity; changes in the competitive environment among financial and bank holding companies and other financial service providers; unanticipated regulatory or judicial proceedings; and the Company's ability to manage the risk involved in the foregoing. Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements are discussed in the Company's 2019 Annual Report on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC and available at the SEC's Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>).

Further, given its ongoing and dynamic nature, it is difficult to predict the full impact of the COVID-19 outbreak on our business. The extent of such impact will depend on future developments, which are highly uncertain, including when the coronavirus can be controlled and abated and when and how the economy may be reopened. As the result of the COVID-19 pandemic and the related adverse local and national economic consequences, we could be subject to any of the following risks, any of which could have a material, adverse effect on our business, financial condition, liquidity, and results of operations: the demand for our products and services may decline, making it difficult to grow assets and income; if the economy is unable to substantially reopen, and high levels of unemployment continue for an extended period of time, loan delinquencies, problem assets, and foreclosures may increase, resulting in increased charges and reduced income; collateral for loans, especially real estate, may decline in value, which could cause loan losses to increase; our allowance for loan losses may increase if borrowers experience financial difficulties, which will adversely affect our net income; the net worth and liquidity of loan guarantors may decline, impairing their ability to honor commitments to us; as the result of the decline in the Federal Reserve Board's target federal funds rate to near 0%, the yield on our assets may decline to a greater extent than the decline in our cost of interest-bearing liabilities, reducing our net interest margin and spread and reducing net income; our cyber security risks are increased as the result of an increase in the number of employees working remotely; and FDIC premiums may increase if the agency experience additional resolution costs.

The Company undertakes no obligation to revise or publicly release any revision or update to these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that occur after the date on which such statements were made, unless required by law.
